

Sub-program	2. Human Resource and Institutional Development for Economic Development
Component (CP) (Development Issues)	2-2. Improvement of Legal System
Accepting University	Nagoya University Graduate School of Law NOTE: Hold a Bachelor Degree in the field of Law, Political Science are preferred. (International Relation about Law is acceptable) &lt;Available Degree&gt; Master of Laws (Comparative Law)
Expected Research Area	Laws on Economic Activities, Commercial Sales Laws, Administrative Procedures, Administrative Litigation, etc.
Target Organizations	See “Target Organization List 2023” on JDS website
Background	“Government Development Strategy 2017-2021” states the rule of law and legal system reform. The strategy stipulates a wide range of reforms such as independence of judiciary, protection of citizens' rights, improvement of legal system, strengthening of crime prevention system, strengthening of justice system, and improvement of justice service. The Japanese Government is supporting the legalization and rationalization of various administrative procedures, such as the “Project to Assist Draft Bankruptcy Law Draft Project” and the “Project for Improving Administrative Procedures to Revitalize the Private Sector”, in order to strengthen the organizational strength of judicial-related organizations. JDS aims to develop human resources who contribute to fair and equitable legislation in order to promote foreign investment to further promote market economy.