

Sub-program	2. Human Resource and Institutional Development for Economic Development
Component (CP) (Development Issues)	2-3. Management of Public Finance
Accepting University	Ritsumeikan University Graduate School of Economics <Available Degree> Master of Economics
Expected Research Area	Public Policy, Economic Sociology, Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, Social Policy, Financial Policy, Development Economics, etc.
Target Organizations	See "Target Organization List 2023" on JDS website
Background	"Government Development Strategy 2017-2021" sets out economic development, including improvement of public financial management, aiming for macroeconomic stability and stable economic growth. The Japanese government supports the implementation of tax administration improvement projects and dispatch of senior volunteers in the fields of management and finance. JDS project aims at improving the capacities of the government officials and practitioners that contribute to planning and implementing of improvement of national treasury system, stabilizing national currency, facilitation of tax procedures and market-oriented economic reform.