

Sub-program	1. Strengthening the Free and Open International Order
Component (CP) (Development Issues)	1-1. International Public Policy
Accepting University	International University of Japan            Graduate School of International Relations            International Relations Program (IRP) &lt;Available Degree&gt;            Master of Arts in International Relations or Political Science
Expected Research Area	International Political Economy, Macroeconomic Modeling and Forecasting, International Relations in Eurasia, Foreign Policy Analysis, International Politics, Global Issues
Target Organizations	See “Target Organization List 2024” on JDS website
Background	From a geopolitical perspective, the government of Uzbekistan aims to develop stable nation-building and balanced diplomacy that does not depend on any specific country under the turbulent international situation and to maintain and strengthen relations with various countries. To achieve peaceful and stable development under the complex and dynamic changing international situation, it is essential to maintain and cooperate in international cooperations with countries around the world. It will be difficult to resolve development issues in each sector without the maintenance and development of appropriate international relations. Therefore, it is important to improve the capacity of administrative agencies responsible for international public policy, and the development of core administrative officers is expected.

Sub-program	1. Strengthening the Free and Open International Order
Component (CP) (Development Issues)	1-1. International Public Policy
Accepting University	International Christian University            Graduate School of Arts and Sciences &lt;Available Degree&gt;            Master of Arts in Public Administration or Master of Arts in International Relation
Expected Research Area	Global Governance, International Political Economy, Political Institutions, Financial Reforms, etc.
Target Organizations	See "Target Organization List 2024" on JDS website
Background	From a geopolitical perspective, the government of Uzbekistan aims to develop stable nation-building and balanced diplomacy that does not depend on any specific country under the turbulent international situation and to maintain and strengthen relations with various countries. To achieve peaceful and stable development under the complex and dynamic changing international situation, it is essential to maintain and cooperate in international cooperations with countries around the world. It will be difficult to resolve development issues in each sector without the maintenance and development of appropriate international relations. Therefore, it is important to improve the capacity of administrative agencies responsible for international public policy, and the development of core administrative officers is expected.