

Sub-program	1. Strengthening the Free and Open International Order
Component (CP) (Development Issues)	1-2. Rule of Law/Building Legal Order
Accepting University	Nagoya University Graduate School of Law NOTE: Hold a Bachelor's Degree in the field of Law or Political Science is preferred. <Available Degree> Master of Laws (Comparative Law)
Expected Research Area	Laws on Economic Activities, Commercial Sales Laws, Administrative Procedures, Administrative Litigation, etc.
Target Organizations	See "Target Organization List 2024" on JDS website
Background	In "New National Development Strategy 2022-2026," the government set their goal to establish the principles of justice and the rule of law, which are essential for the transition to a market economy, and to build a nation through the enhancement of human dignity and the development of a free society. Not only the formulation and implementation of policies, laws, and regulations but also the strengthening of judicial functions and independence are important. In particular, as Uzbekistan aims for economic growth driven by foreign investment, it is important to create an environment in which foreign investors can engage in economic activities without any problems, and there is a need to strengthen the development of laws and the stable operation of laws and regulations. The establishment of a legal order based on universal values is also important. Therefore, it is needed to develop human resources in the legal profession and law enforcement agencies that will lead to the stable application of law in a wide range of fields so that this project will lead to the strengthening of bilateral relations in the future.

Sub-program	1. Strengthening the Free and Open International Order
Component (CP) (Development Issues)	1-2. Rule of Law/Building Legal Order
Accepting University	Nagoya University of Economics Graduate School of Law NOTE: Hold a Bachelor's Degree in the field of Law is preferred (not mandatory) <Available Degree> Master of Laws
Expected Research Area	Administrative Law, Comparative Administrative Law, Constitutional Law, Civil Law, Intellectual Property Law, Chinese Law, Foreign Law, Property Law, Sports Law, International Law, International Economic Law, Corporate Law etc.
Target Organizations	See "Target Organization List 2024" on JDS website
Background	In "New National Development Strategy 2022-2026," the government set their goal to establish the principles of justice and the rule of law, which are essential for the transition to a market economy, and to build a nation through the enhancement of human dignity and the development of a free society. Not only the formulation and implementation of policies, laws, and regulations but also the strengthening of judicial functions and independence are important. In particular, as Uzbekistan aims for economic growth driven by foreign investment, it is important to create an environment in which foreign investors can engage in economic activities without any problems, and there is a need to strengthen the development of laws and the stable operation of laws and regulations. The establishment of a legal order based on universal values is also important. Therefore, it is needed to develop human resources in the legal profession and law enforcement agencies that will lead to the stable application of law in a wide range of fields so that this project will lead to the strengthening of bilateral relations in the future.